Second Hand Rose, Heathers, Roundabout and Alfred's

Making your money go further

In the quaint town of Bradford-on-Avon, four shops are the staple to the recyclable fashion within in the town's community, these shops being: Second Hand Rose, Heathers, Roundabout and Alfred's. Round about and Second Hand Rose opened 32 years ago in Bath, however have moved to Bradford-on-Avon in the last 5 years. These shops cater for all the family, with each shop having a different target market.

Owned by Fiona Leach, who has over 32 years experience in the retail trade, Fiona says: "We have a huge array of people coming to the shops from the young to the old and across all genders. They all have one thing in common in that they are discovering that they can find their next wardrobe favourite or outfit for a fraction of the price that you would expect to pay in a High Street store.

"The styles of clothing within the shops are often quirky, so if you are looking for something a little bit different there are lots of different brands including top designer labels to be found within the four shops catering for all budgets." In the shops you can find a variation of top end high street clothing and accessories.

"You really can find a whole new wardrobe for remarkably good value" Fiona added.

If you have seasonal items that you would like to sell, pop in and they will take them on. All sales are on a 50/50 commission rate.

Open Monday to Saturday 10-5 at Market Street, Bradford-on-Avon or call the shop on 01225 863006. Alfred's and Second Hand Rose are also open Sundays, 11-4.
